Jaffe, Personel memos, 1/26/68

How foolish it is to write memos repeating what Sprague had already told the office, at best second hand, at worst less acurate and less complete.

1/26 (Gerald Hill)- repetion of the duplicationm of Sprague, plus the revealtion they all continued to take the refugees from Dutsville in Dallas seriously.

3/20-ample commantary on the accuracy of Sanders' work.

2/6 Garrison had a telephone code with Jaffe!

Whatever the " most important" Sigma Chi lead is, that is one insanity that had escaped me. (Thatk God!) Here again, Turner vouching for Rose, on the basis of nothing,,,,Does this say G was about to charge Reagan? I is probably Loftin. Page 3 duplicates a long letter this source had already written. Jaffe is merely making it or trying to make it seem that he has done something. It was trash, in any event.

3/20/68, Colls memo: Iwill waste no time ever rereading this. It is an accurate reflection of Jaffe and the kind of supervision under which he worked. This woman phoned in to speak to me. Jaffe was in the control room to take the numbers of those who did. Because I couldn't go there and Burton couldn't, he went. But he did not go on schedule, so I did not know what she told him. The real purpose of sending him to see her was to get certain documents she claimed to have had. This, the one thing, he didn't do. It took six weeks for him to report in a memo and much later for me, with some difficulty and much prodding, to get a copy. I still have no way of knowing if this woman was a nut or whether there is anything to her story. As so often can happen, people may know things and not heir significance. Burton's opinion is in itself illuminating- untypical, may I add.

3/20/68, Dudnick Yes, I know doctors can also be mentally ill.But how helpful taking Rose, about whom I had already established serious doubts along when their might be a "plot" against Garrison! It turns out the doctor is a quack. The names, I believe, could have come from the papers, for such men were infolved with such groups-not secretly. They had been exposed. But feeding Garrison aircraft company connections was perfect! But fear not, Jaffe detected Dudnick is "eaurotic"- not enough to disqualify him though. He is to be listened to!

1/26/68- I am reasonably derteinn despite this representation, that it is not Jaffe who determined that the unidentified man is Brahm. What would be interesting is who starter that one.
